The International Table Tennis Federation

The ITTF was founded as a result of discussions initiated in Berlin by Dr Georg Lehmann (Germany) on 15th January 1926. The English representatives at these discussions issued an invitation to London at the end of 1926, the first table tennis World Championships.

A General Meeting and World Championships were held next in Stockholm in January 1928 and thereafter annually until 1939, by which time 28 Associations had affiliated to the ITTF.

the ITTF was headed from the outset by Ivor Montagu (England), initially as Chairman of the Advisory Committee and from 1937, when the position was first established, as President. Montagu retired in 1967 and was succeeded by Roy Evans (Wales, 1967 – 1987), Ichiro Ogimura (Japan, 1987 – 1994), Lollo Hammarlund (Sweden, 1994 – 1995), Xu Yinsheng (China, 1995 – 1999) and Adham Sharara (Canada, 1999 – the present).

Largely as the result of Roy Evans' efforts, table tennis was recognised in 1977 as an Olympic sport and was included for the first time in the 1988 Olympic Summer Games in Seoul. Today the ITTF has three offices. The headquarters is in Lausanne/Renens, Switzerland, the President's office in Ottawa, Canada and the Asia/Pacific office in Beijing, China.

The ITTF is staging a World Championship event every year. Team World Championships are played in even years (2008 in Guangzhou, China; 2010 in Moscow, Russia), Individual (Singles and Doubles) World Championships in odd years (2007 in Zagreb, Croatia; 2009 in Yokohama, Japan).

The ITTF Pro Tour was implemented in 1996. On the 2008 Pro Tour there was an overall prize money of about two million US dollar. The ITTF Junior Circuit started in 2002. The first Junior Circuit Finals and Cadet Challenge were held 2003 in Genting, Malaysia.
